

Your WorkFlow trial license must be activated using the unique PUK code below. To set-up your WorkFlow account simply:

- Download the "WorkFlow" app (by Aliaxis Deutschland GmbH) onto your Smartphone from either the iTunes or Android App store
- On your desktop, log into the secure Aliaxis portal (select English as the language): <https://portal.aliaxis.de/portal/dashboard>
- Set-up your account and add your team members
- You're ready to go

- Remember – Once activated the trial license will enable WorkFlow access for a period of three (3) months. Access to WorkFlow at the end of the three-month trial period is through purchasing one of the subscription options below at the special Tool Kit promotional price which is valid until 30th September 2024. Please contact Vinidex for details and to place your order.
